USEFUL INFORMATION FOR DELEGATES

TRAVEL AND TRANSPORTATION

Singapore Changi International Airport (SIN)

The main international gateway is the award-winning Changi Airport, which is located on the eastern end of the island.

Fun fact!

Changi is more than just an airport? Upon arrival, you can visit the iconic Jewel Changi Airport, a magnificent complex known for the Rain Vortex - the world's tallest indoor waterfall! This 40-metre cascade is surrounded by a lush indoor forest (the Shiseido Forest Valley) and features various attractions, making Changi an attraction in itself!

- Distance to Marina Bay (Downtown Core): 18.4 km / 11.4 miles
- Travel time to Marina Bay area: approximately 20-30 minutes by car/taxi (depending on traffic).

Hotel Details (PARKROYAL COLLECTION Marina Bay)

- Address: 6 Raffles Boulevard, Singapore 039594
- Hotel Phone: +65 6845 1000

Ground Transportation

- Taxis: Traditional metered taxis are widely available. For airport pickups at Changi Airport, follow the signs for "Taxi."
- Ride-Hailing: the most dominant ride-hailing app is Grab, which offers private cars and taxis.
- Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) (Subway): Singapore's highly efficient subway system is the best way to travel around the city.
 - Nearest MRT Stations to the Hotel:
 - Esplanade MRT Station (Circle Line - CC3) - approx. 2-5 min walk
 - Promenade MRT Station (Circle Line - CC4 / Downtown Line - DT15) - approx. 5-8 min walk
 - Tip: Purchase an EZ-Link Card at any MRT station for convenient travel on the MRT and public buses.

TIME ZONE AND WEATHER

The Time Zone

- The time zone in Singapore is Singapore Time (SGT), which is UTC (Coordinated Universal Time) +8 hours.
- Singapore does not observe daylight saving time.

Weather in March

- Singapore has a tropical climate; expect it to be warm and humid.
- Temperatures range from a low of 25 degrees Celsius (77 degrees Fahrenheit) to a high of around 32 degrees Celsius (90 degrees Fahrenheit).
 - Tip: Pack light, breathable clothing and an umbrella or light rain jacket, as tropical downpours are common!

CURRENCY AND TIPPING

The Currency

- The official currency is the Singapore Dollar (SGD), often denoted as S$.
- Credit Cards: major credit cards (Visa, Mastercard, Amex) are widely accepted.
- Money Exchange: can be easily found at Changi Airport, banks, and licensed money changers.

Tipping

- Tipping is not mandatory or expected, as a 10% service charge is usually included in hotel and restaurant bills.

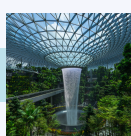

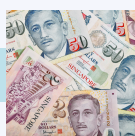

FOR YOUR INFO!

Electrical Plugs

- Singapore uses the Type G electrical plug (the same as in the UK).
- The standard voltage is 230 volts at a frequency of 50 hertz..

Language

- English is the most common language used in business, government, and education, ensuring seamless communication. (The four official languages are English, Malay, Mandarin Chinese, and Tamil.)

THURSDAY, 19 MARCH - WELCOME TO SINGAPORE!

We welcome you to join us at the spectacular PARKROYAL COLLECTION Marina Bay, Singapore's first "garden in a hotel."

This hotel is breathtaking! Prepare to be captivated the moment you step inside. This 5-star property is a true architectural wonder, designed as an immersive urban sanctuary right in the heart of Marina Bay.

- Marvel at Southeast Asia's largest indoor, sky-lit atrium, 21 stories high and home to over 2,400 lush plants and trees. It is a peaceful, living landscape that redefines luxury hospitality.
- Experience pioneering conscious luxury with a true farm-to-table culinary journey. The hotel's own Rooftop Urban Farm supplies fresh, seasonal ingredients directly to the restaurants, bars, and spa.
- By choosing this award-winning, GSTC-certified hotel, you are embracing a responsible experience. The hotel's commitment to the environment is reflected in its elimination of 360,000 plastic bottles annually and the use of solar power for its guest lifts. Sleep well knowing you are staying in an award-winning, GSTC-certified leader in conscious hospitality. The hotel's bold commitment to the planet is immediately evident as it has eliminated 360,000 plastic bottles annually and uses solar power to run its guest lifts!

THURSDAY, 19 MARCH - RAFFLES BAR

Long Bar & Dinner at Raffles Hotel or Tower Club

For our initial arrival, we will head to Raffles Hotel Long Bar. Here we will enjoy the legendary Singapore Sling, and if you're hungry upon arrival, there's the option to order some bar snacks, too.

Singapore Slings are around $40 (excluding tax and service), but experiencing this drink in this iconic setting is well worth every cent. As tradition dictates, we'll shell peanuts and sweep the husks onto the floor, making us part of the bar's unique history.

The original Singapore Sling is a gin-based cocktail and was created here in 1915 by bartender Ngiam Tong Boon! We can't wait to give it a taste!

Dinner will follow at either the Tiffin Room at Raffles Hotel or the Tower Club (TBC), both of which are known for their excellent cuisine options.

FRIDAY, 20 MARCH - GUEST SPEAKERS AT THE REGIONAL MEETING

FORMER AMBASSADOR-AT-LARGE, MR. BILAHARI KAUSIKAN

Former Ambassador-at-Large, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Singapore Mr. Bilahari Kausikan is a distinguished Singaporean diplomat and commentator on international affairs, with a career spanning more than three decades in public service. He joined the Singapore Foreign Service in 1981 and was absorbed into the Administrative Service in 1983, going on to hold a wide range of senior appointments within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA).

His overseas and senior postings included Ambassador to the Russian Federation, Permanent Representative of Singapore to the United Nations in New York, and concurrently High Commissioner to Canada and Ambassador to Mexico. Within MFA, he served as Deputy Secretary, Second Permanent Secretary (Foreign Affairs) from 2001, and subsequently Permanent Secretary of MFA from 2010 to 2013, during which he steered Singapore's foreign service through an increasingly complex and uncertain international environment. Following his retirement as Permanent Secretary, Mr. Kausikan was appointed Ambassador-at-Large, a role he held until May 2018.

Beyond government service, Mr. Kausikan continued to contribute to policy and strategic discourse. In 2017, he was appointed Chairman of the Middle East Institute (MEI), an autonomous research institute of the National University of Singapore, where he provided strategic leadership until his retirement from the role in 2024. He subsequently became an Honorary Fellow of MEI.

Mr. Kausikan was educated at Raffles Institution and studied Political Science at the University of Singapore (now part of the National University of Singapore). He later received a scholarship to pursue doctoral studies in International Relations at Columbia University in New York. Although initially set on an academic path, he chose to return to Singapore to join the Foreign Service, embarking on a career in diplomacy and public service.

Widely regarded for his pragmatic leadership and strategic clarity, Mr. Kausikan has played a significant role in advancing Singapore's political, economic, and security interests, while strengthening the nation's standing in the international arena. For his contributions, he has been conferred several honours, including the Pingat Jasa Gemilang (Meritorious Service Medal) by the Singapore Government, the Order of Bernardo O'Higgins (Gran Cruz) by the Republic of Chile, and the Oman Civil Merit Order, Second Class by the Sultanate of Oman.

Beyond government service, Mr. Kausikan is an accomplished author and commentator on global affairs. He has published books such as Dealing with an Ambiguous World (2016), Singapore Is Not an Island (2017), and Singapore Is Still Not an Island (2023), and continues to lecture widely on geopolitics, international relations, and regional dynamics.

VISA AND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

While many nationalities do not require a visa for a short business or social visit, please note the following critical points:

- Passport Validity: Your passport must be valid for at least six months beyond your intended date of arrival in Singapore.
- Check Your Status: Most business/social visitors can enter Singapore without a pre-arranged visa for stays up to 30 or 90 days.
- Mandatory SG Arrival Card: All travellers must complete the electronic SG Arrival Card online within 3 days before arriving in Singapore. This is not a visa but a mandatory health/travel declaration.
- Immigration Discretion: The period of stay granted is determined by the Immigration and Checkpoints Authority (ICA) officer upon entry, issued as an electronic visit pass (e-Pass).

Action: If you are unsure about your country's specific visa requirements, please check the official Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) website immediately.

CULTURAL AND LEGAL DOS & DON'TS (THE "FINE CITY" RULES)

Singapore is renowned for its cleanliness and order, maintained by strict enforcement of public laws. Please observe the following:

DO:

- Use Public Transport.
- Queue politely for taxis, MRT, and buses.
- Return your tray at hawker centres (food courts).
- Stand on the left of escalators if you are not walking.
- Drink the tap water (it is safe and of high quality).
- Consider getting travel insurance - private healthcare costs for foreigners in Singapore are world-class but very expensive.

DON'T:

- Chew gum (unless medically prescribed. The sale and import of regular gum is illegal. Check the HSA website first.)
- Litter, spit, or Jaywalk (These actions carry heavy fines.)
- Smoke in non-designated areas (e.g., public transport, sheltered walkways). The legal age is 21.
- Use, possess, or import electronic vaporisers (vapes/e-cigarettes). (These are strictly prohibited and possession carries a fine of up to S$2,000.)
- Eat or drink on the MRT (Subway) trains or in stations.
- Discuss sensitive politics or religion in casual conversation.
- Bring any medication drugs (painkillers with codeine, sleeping pills, or ADHD meds), without checking the Health Sciences Authority (HSA) website first.

THANK YOU

For joining us in Singapore.
